

Parshu Ram Dahal-Nepal Liaison

Focusing on rural development and establishing sustainable livelihood projects in remote rural areas for most of his professional career, Parshu has brought technology, skills training, and education to the people of the Sankhuwasava District. He currently works as the Nepal Country Coordinator for Another Brick in Nepal, an NGO whose mission is to help rebuild schools that sustained damaged in the 2015 earthquake. A founder and the director of the Society Development Center (SODEC), Parshu helped develop and steer programs for sustainable agriculture to empower rural poor in Nepal. His experience has brought effective collaboration with government agencies has been instrumental in successful fundraising and grants for multiple organizations.